DETAILED ACTION

Claims 8,9,14,18-20 and 25 are pending in the application.

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 7/5/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 8,9,14,18-20 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kuehne et al. (CA 1268714) in view of Kern et al. (US 5,712,097).
4. Applicant asserts that the examiner acknowledges the unpredictability in cancer treatment yet, on the other hand, states that the teaching of Kuehne can be extended with reasonable expectation of success and that this reasoning is not sustainable.
5. The examiner acknowledged the unpredictability in cancer treatment which would undoubtedly provoke one skilled in the art to further examine the types of adenocarcinomas. As the examiner pointed out (via wikipedia) that the term adenocarcinoma is frequently associated with pancreatic cancer. Therefore in light of this information the unpredictability of the method of treating cancer (adenocarcinoma) with chlorite solution as stated by Kuehne et al. is reduced.

Art Unit: 1618

6. Applicant asserts that there is no suggestion or teaching in Kuehne et al. to use the stabilized chlorite solution in the treatment of pancreatic cancer. The method of treating cancer of Kuehne et al. is directed toward adenocarcinoma and as stated above the term adenocarcinoma is frequently associated with pancreatic cancer. One would be motivated to utilize the method of Kuehne et al. to treat pancreatic cancer with a reasonable expectation of success.

7. Applicant asserts that there is no suggestion or teaching in Kern et al. to a treatment of pancreatic carcinoma.

8. The reference of Kern et al. was not used to teach treatment of pancreatic carcinoma but to teach that pancreatic cancer is associated with DCC.

Conclusion

No claims are allowed at this time.

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
